OFFICE OF THE FIRST SELECTWOMAN
BETHANY, CT 06524

Welcome to Bethany! If you are looking for a small town with rural charm, character and convenience, you can get it all in Bethany. Voted the #1 Small Town in 2007 by Connecticut Magazine, Bethany residents have been proud of this recognition and continue to seek to maintain Bethany's small-town charm and lifestyle. Located in New Haven County, it is just minutes away from New Haven, Waterbury, Bridgeport and Hartford, with easy access to New York and Boston. Bethany is home to approximately 5200 residents.

You can have the best of both worlds enjoying the arts, sports and culture of the cities and then returning to the rural community to just kick back and relax, enjoying the beautifully preserved open spaces. Residents enjoy a variety of local events and activities like hiking, biking and horseback riding. Bethany is unique with over 58% of its land undeveloped either as protected open space or privately-owned land. The land is the foundation of our rural landscape maintaining Bethany's charm and character. Bethany is the only town considered as rural in New Haven County. Bethany is a wonderful place to live and to call home.

TOWN OF WOODBRIDGE

Office of the First Selectman

11 Meetinghouse Lane

The Town of Woodbridge has New England's small-town charm, yet it is only minutes from the many cultural, educational, medical, entertainment, and other services available in New Haven. Roads leading from rural Woodbridge easily connect with major regional transportation systems.

We are proud of our excellent schools, an extensive network of walking trails, multi-faceted recreational programs, and natural beauty.

Woodbridge is an ideal place to live, work and play. I know you will enjoy dining at our fine restaurants and shopping at our local businesses.
