Poems by Eleni Begetis Anastos

THE THREE SISTERS

Outside my town, the Lemon Tree village
In the rocky hills
Three little olive trees embrace against the havoc of the wind

No other tree could survive
They break, eventually, and bow to the earth
Only the green grass grows
Because it is humble and yields to the wind's blows

But the olive trees twine 'round each other
They grow healthy and strong
Standing tall and proud, holding one another
Three sisters—one body, one heart, one soul

Undaunted, standing for the ages
Not fearing hail, rain, or the wind's ferocious blasts
And they will stand for centuries in this place
A strong example of love as time passes

KISMET

According to an old Spartan custom
When I was of very small age
My mother scattered toys around me
To see what destiny had written on my page

I picked up a key and a pencil
My mother's imagination spread afar
She was sure now that writing
Was written in my stars

For years I was a dilettante
Every job was tiring or boring
Until one day in a poet's nest
I happened to come to rest

For the first time I felt I was a "part"
Of a family, not an outcast
I don't know if I am a poet
But I know I was never anything else
